Everybody dream about the money and cars and clothes and all that
Before you think Outasight happened overnight homie you better fall back
This years in the making took a whole lotta work with a whole lotta means
I didn't ever get a call back, never was a draw back ever with a short stack I was all in I'm hustling, I'm bustin in
What you think of me, I'm not interested
I shine you shine I'm so damn tired about your grind
We all got pills and we all like to chill but shit gets real when the (counts?) gets ill I play this straight
I got good karma
Don't cheat don't steal
Don't cause no drama
Of all the actors who wanna be artists, wanna be the hardest, yall just a part this
From honors don't get bothered I'd rather be modest Ride, ride, ride around the city
I got my windows down and I wanna take you with me
So go and close your eyes and see the world is mine
I think its about that time that everybody shine Shine your light

And you should go and try and try and do the same
And take a ride with me on this memory lane damn Ride, ride, ride around the city
