Undeniable You

Jukebox the Ghost

The truth, the undeniable truth,
That a few days ago I didn't think that I could have seen this through.
But then you, undeniable you,
You came to me like a dream and you changed me through and through.
Because I, I was broken good,
Never thought that I could love again.
I thought I'd leave this world a lonely man,
But then you, undeniable you,
Changed me through and through.Oh, the truth,
The damn hard truth,
That I didn't think I was capable of love, loving anyone, even you.
But then you, undeniable you,
You came to me like a dream and you changed me through and through.
Because I, I was broken good,
Never thought that I could love again.
I thought I'd leave this world a lonely man,
But then you, undeniable you,
Changed me through and through.Way down underneath,
You are the currents that are pulling me onward.
I thought I'd leave this world a lonely man,
But then you, undeniable you,
But you, undeniable you,
But you, undeniable you,
You changed me through and through.
