

Cut Me in Two

Rocky Votolato

Oh, night sweat
Sleep it off is exactly what I should do
I won't come through
I won't come through Nobody understands this light
Just like my sincerity, oh, please return to me
'Cause I've been lying to myself, to myself
Myself, you see Time will create something, that's the truth
So it pierces through you, cuts me in two
Shows me why I lied to you, why I lied to you
To you, I lied to you And part of me, I'll never see
But it's gone, I must go on
