

Ready, Aim, Fire!

New Found Glory

Would you save me or leave me behind
Don't say maybe you don't know what I'd do
    I put it on the line cause we all
        Looked through your diary
        Tell me everything you know
        Before I go before I goooo.
        Set this whole town on fire
    Take you with me to watch it burn
        Is this what you wanted
        Look at what you started
    Would you take me so far away from here
        I'm not crazy for crawling back to you
        I wonder all the time
        When your all alone
    Do you wonder where I am
        I can be where you want
        Just say the right words
        But you wont
        So I'll
    Set this whole town on fire
    Take you with me to watch it burn
        Is this what you wanted
        Look at what you started
        Set this whole town on fire
    Take you with me to watch it burn
        Is this what you wanted
        Look at what you started
        Then it hit me
        Should I go that far
        For a girl doesn't ever
    Really know what she wants
        Then it hit me
        Should I go that far
        For a girl doesn't ever
        For a girl doesn't ever
        Know whats she wants
(She doesn't know what she wants)
    She doesn't know what she wants

I read through your diary
Tell me everything you know
Before I go before I go
Set this whole town on fire
Take you with me to watch it burn
Is this what you wanted
Look at what you started
Set this whole town on fire
Take you with me to watch it burn
Look at what you started
Yeah look at what you started
