

Why You Still Need Me (feat. William Clark Green)

Kensie Coppin

Can't understand
Why you'd want to stay.
It's not fair to you
me actin this way,
but you won't give up,
even when I do.
I've hurt you too much
so between me and you.

I don't know why
or how we got here
when did the lines we drew, disappear
i don't know why we don't say goodbye
and leave all this hurtin' behind suffered enough why can't I be tough just let your heart beat.
I don't know why, you still need me.

(William Clark Green)
You don't want me to go, and I just can't see.
'cause you don't lose all control so you can finally be free seems I might bother you we don't agree
I sentence myself
to be the one whose guilty.

I don't know why
or how we got here.
When did the lines
we drew disappear?
I don't know why we don't say goodbye
and leave all this hurtin' behind we've suffered enough why can't I be tough and just let your heart beat.
I don't know why you still need me.

I don't know why

we don't say goodbye
we just let our heart beats I don't know why
you still need me
I don't know why
you still need me

Lyrics Submitted by Laura Yoder

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>