

Panic (Acoustic Version) [Bonus Track]

Sublime With Rome

ohh.. so many people runnin' don't know where they're goin' panic and panic and panic showing no sign of slowing i need a reason man i got to know don't you wish your worth was money?
my only motive for destruction is to be reeal realize what we want
i need a reason man i got to know
don't you wish your worth was money?
don't you wish you open doors and close them quicker than the hands of most can't you see there was hope here it's time for reaction shake me up, somebody wake me up i need a break from all your metal pollution
there ain't no solution to all of the damage that you've done don't you wish your worth was money?
can't you see there was hope here it's time for reaction realize what's wrong wrong with your life quicker than the eyes of most can't you see there was hope here it's time for reaction how can you say?
you don't wanna know
don't wanna know the truth how can you say?
don't wanna know the truth how can you say?
don't wanna know the truth how can you say?
don't wanna know the truth and that's alright oh... that's okay
and that's alright

stop right there
