Story Of My Life

Bon Jovi

Yesterday?s a memory another page of history
You sell yourself on hopes and dreams that leaves you feeling sideways
Tripping over my own feet, trying to walk to my own beat
Another car out on the street trying to find the highway
Yeah, are you going my way?
This is the story of my life and I write it everyday
I know it isn?t black and white and it?s anything but gray
I know that no I?m not alright but I feel okay
'Cause anything can, everything can happen that?s the story of my life
I gonna write the melody that?s gonna make history
And when I paint my masterpiece I swear I?ll show you first
There just ain?t a way to see who and why or what will be
Till now is then it?s a mystery, it?s a blessing and a curse
Or something worse.
This is the story of my life and I write it everyday
I know it isn?t black and white and it?s anything but gray
I know that no I?m not alright but I feel okay
'Cause anything can, everything can, I been thinking may be you can Tell me 'bout the story of my life, what do you say?
This is the story of my life and I write it everyday
And I hope you're by my side when I?m writing the last page
This is the story of my life and I write it everyday
I know it isn?t black and white and it?s anything but gray
I know that no I?m not alright but I feel okay
'Cause anything can, everything can, I been thinking baby we can
This is the story of my life
The story of my life, the story of my life
This is the story of my life
The story of my life, this is the story of my life
