Love Song (Take 1)

Syd Barrett

I knew a girl and I like her still
She said she knew she would trust me and I her will
I said okay, baby, tell me what you'll be
And I'll lay my head down and see what I seeBy the time she was back
By her open eyes
I knew that I was in for a big surpriseI knew a girl and I like her still
She said she knew she would trust me and I her will
I said okay, baby, tell me what you'll be
And I'll lay my head down and see what I seeBy the time she was back
By her open eyes
I knew that I was in for a big surprise
