Something Is Lost

Eskobar

When something is lost
And it can't be found
You think about love
It always let you downBut stories they change
It may take some time
Our lives rearranged
They always let you downWhy do you say, you never pray
But you do?When it's over and out
And you're alone inside
You think about love
It used to let you downWhy do you say, you never pray
But you do?
