

Paris in June

JOHNNYSWIM

Won't, won't, won't let you go.
You pull from me like Moses did the stone.
Please, please, please let it last,
A penny for your thoughts and a rose for your past.
Every word that comes from you
Moves me like Paris in June. Go, go, go down this road.
Rest your head while I sing away the ghost.
Oh how lovely you seem,
Each day I fall for you and you keep falling for me.
Every moment I'm with you
Thrills me like Paris in June. Oh I can't deny it
And oh no
If this life should end too soon
It would still be sweet cause it was spent with you.
Every day was Paris in June.
Every day is Paris in June.
