

Don't Let the Sun Catch You Crying

Paul McCartney

Don't let the sun catch you crying
Crying on my front door
You done your daddy dirty now
And honey, he ain't gonna love you no more And don't let the sun catch you crying
Crying on my front door
You done your daddy dirty now
And honey, he ain't gonna love you no more Well, you can cry, cry, cry, cry
Oh now baby, you can wail
You can bang your little head on the pavement
Till the man comes and throws you in jail Crying on my front door
You done daddy dirty now
Yeah, and honey, he ain't gonna love you no more Well, you can cry, cry, cry, cry
Oh now baby, baby, you can wail
You can bang your hear on that hard, hard pavement
Till the man comes and throws you in jail Crying on my front door
You done daddy dirty now
And honey, he ain't gonna love you no more Yeah, you know you done him dirty now
You know you done him dirty
