

Come Through and Chill (feat. J. Cole)

Miguel

[Intro: Miguel & J. Cole]

Trust

Pick up the phone, show me it was real

Pick up the phone, show me it was real

Pick up the phone, show me it was real

Pick up the phone[Verse 1: J. Cole]

Yeah, I don't wanna put no pressure on ya

I just wanna put a blessing on ya

Since our last undressin' session, I'm not really sure if you've been checkin'

I'm progressin', I just heard my songs is poppin' out in Macedonia

And even Serbia, I don't mean to burden ya

If you got a man since then, I understand

Last thing I wanna do is get you jammed

'Specially if he's a fan, he'll prolly never wanna hear my shit again

And I need every single sound scan

But if you single and you down, then...

I'm in your town fiendin' for another round

I was countin down the days

Been more patient than a Browns fan

Where that chip at?

Prolly on your shoulder, 'cause I forgot to hit back

Left you on read, apologies I said

But often never meant, well fuck that, I repent

For message never sent, now...

[Verse 2: Miguel]

Hello, stranger

It's been a minute since we last kicked it

By the way, just got in town

That I won't let cumulus clouds all in the sky ruin my vibe

Usually, I don't do this often

But since we're coolin', is it an option?

Due to unusual rain and thunder

Baby, I wonder, baby, I wonder, would you just

[Pre-Chorus: Miguel]

Put your sweats on, put your sweats on for me, yeah

'Cause I got the plug, I made the call for green

I'm talkin' late-night for you

Let me lay a great time on you

Don't hesitate, no, don't you, no, no

[Chorus: Miguel]

Just say you will, will, will

Come through and chill, chill, chill

Just say you will, will, will

Come through and chill, chill, chill[Post-Chorus: Miguel]

I wanna f... all night (say it)

I wanna f... all night (uh-huh, uh-huh)

I wanna f... all night (say it)

I wanna f... all night[Verse 3: Miguel]

Hello, stranger, vape's been waiting

Just as I recall, that ass is still amazing

I'm playin', baby; I'm sayin', baby

Lovin' shit, you know I'm crazy

So go ahead and pour the drink up

I'm so glad we got to link up, yeah[Pre-Chorus: Miguel]

Get to takin' that off, takin' that off for me, yeah

Cause I got the plug, I made the call for green

I'm talkin' late-night for you

Let me lay a great time on you

Don't make me wait, no, don't you, no, no[Chorus: Miguel & J. Cole]

Just say you will, will, will

Come through and chill, chill, chill

Just say you will, will, will

Shit, that's a good sound...

Come through and chill, chill, chill

Ayy, Gucc, can I tell her some real shit? Yeah[Verse 4: J. Cole]

In case my lack of reply had you catchin' them feelings

Know you've been on my mind like Kaepernick kneelin'

Or police killings, or Trump sayin' slick shit

Manipulatin' poor white folks because they're ignorant

Blind to the struggles of the ones that got the pigment

Lately I've been stressin' 'cause it seems so malignant

I need to feel your essence in my presence if you're with it

I guarantee you won't regret you did it if you come through[Chorus: Miguel]

Just say you will, will, will

Come through and chill, chill, chill

Just say you will, will, will

Come through and chill, chill, chill

Just say you will, will, will

I wanna f... all night (say it)

I wanna f... all night (uh-huh, uh-huh)

Come through and chill, chill, chill

I wanna f... all night (say it)

I wanna f... all night

Just say you will, will, will

I wanna f... all night (say it)
I wanna f... all night (uh-huh, uh-huh)
Come through and chill, chill, chill[Post-Chorus: Miguel]
I wanna f... all night (say it)
I wanna f... all night (uh-huh, uh-huh)
I wanna f... all night (say it)
I wanna f... all night[Outro: J. Cole]
Pick up the phone, show me it was real
Pick up the phone, show me it was real
Pick up the phone, show me it was real
Pick up the phone, yeah
