

The War I Wage

I Am Alpha and Omega

Here is the line, it's so divine
Here is the line, it's so divine
Here is the line, it's so divine Here is the line, it's so divine
The choice is quick but this choice means everything I've been through war and fire
We've been through war and fire Back down you say, you'll fend for me
My heart is black and your tears fill up an endless sea
Your dying wish, is to protect me
From a war I waged, from a war I waged but do not see We won't let, we won't let, we won't let,
We won't give it away, we won't give it away If we just back down and we just relinquish
We'll find what we're looking for The tragic truth is in the Let Go, the Let Go Save me now my Great
Commander, save me now Here is the line, it's so divine
This choice is quick but this choice means everything
