

Sympathy for the World

Down By Law

Of all the times I've tried to talk to you and acted out of line
Please understand when I tell you more than anything
Why must we hold a candle to all our shames?
I forgave my enemies but I never forgot their names
Of all the times I've tried to talk to you this time I think I'm fine
We'll make it through 'cause I'll never want you to cry
And there's no fire without lots of smoke
Everyone laughed, I didn't get the joke
But I'm secure with my insecurity
And I'm so sure with my uncertainty
I know we're bored with our apologies
This time we're making everything we need
This time, I don't want to know what I'm thinking
I just want to know what you think
And do you think that I should think this way?
