I'm Falling

Girls Aloud

When I was young I wanted to be a punk rocker
But everybody said "no"
And I was sure that if I ever had a shocker
The same old folks would say "go"It wasn't for lack of passion, a singular fashion
That led me to go
But then i'll always be your twisted little sister
And all the rest can go blowI'm falling, I'll hit the floor running
Keep calling, I feel my heart drumming
I'm falling, I'll hit the floor running
'Cause this time, this time I'm doing okay
I need some va va voom
To get me outta this room
It's gotten small for me
I'm burning bright as hell
So honey, wish me well
'Cause now I'm running freeWhen I was young I wanted to be a punk rocker
But everybody said "no"
And I was sure that if I ever had a shocker
The same old folks would say "go"It wasn't for lack of passion, a singular fashion
That led me to go
But then i'll always be your twisted little sister
And all the rest can go blowI'm falling, I'll hit the floor running
Keep calling, I feel my heart drumming
I'm falling, I'll hit the floor running
'Cause this time, this time I'm doing okay
I need some va va voom
To get me outta this room
It's gotten small for me
I'm burning bright as hell
So honey, wish me well
'Cause now I'm running free
