Severed Head Stoning

Cannibal Corpse

Buried waist deep, gagged and bound
Piles of heads lie on the ground
Executioners start to assembleCondemned man shakes with fear
Doom now becoming clear
The faces of the heads he resemblesSevered head stoningHis family's head strike him
The most recent victims
Without mercy savage killers throwHis wife's head breaks his jaw
Bruised flesh becoming raw
From many wounds blood begins to flowWhen the victim dies
They chop off his headSevered head stoningBadly beaten in a daze
Eye pops out, fluids spray
Pulsing veins 'cause the wounds to gushThe end is near the bloody stumps
Mangled face a mass of lumps
What was now a man reduced to mushMashed into a pulp
Dozens of bones breakSevered head stoning
