

Breakdown

Tantric

In your life you seem to have it all
You seem to have control
But deep within your soul
You're losing it You never took the time
Assume that you're to blame
You think that you're insane
Won't you spare me I know the breakdown
Everything is gonna shake now someday
I know the breakdown
Tell me again, am I awake now? Maybe You can find the reason that
No one else is livin' this way
Livin' this way Yeah, your lies, your world is built around
Two faces of a clown
Voices in your head
Think there's four pawns down But in this unity
Fate has found the need
So you better check yourself
'Fore you check out Oh, I know the breakdown
Everything is gonna shake now someday
I know the breakdown
Tell me again am I awake now? Maybe You can find the reason that
No one else is livin' this way
Livin' this way If you find yourself
Then you might believe
(If you find yourself)
(Then you might believe) An' then within yourself
You just might conceive
(Then within yourself)
(You just might conceive) I know the breakdown
Everything is gonna shake now someday
I know the breakdown
Tell me again am I awake now? Maybe You can find the reason that
No one else is livin' this way
Living this way You can find the reason that
(No one else is livin' this way)
You can find the reason that
You can find the reason that
You can find the reason that You can find the reason that
(No one else is livin' this way)

You can find the reason that
You can find the reason that
