Never Better

P.O.S.

Sooner or later you?re gonna find out
I guess you can say that I?ll turn the lights out you made the flowers but I?ll rearrange them all now I?ve got the power so I?m gonna watch us fall Changing the locks on the door leaving all the stuff on the floor
maybe I should be asking myself if I?m okay
But I?m alright (but I?m alright)
never better (never better)
if you could see me now.
Yeah I?m okay (Yeah I?m okay)
never better (never better)
I?ve blown away the clouds.
You tell me it?s over and not even listen (and not even listen)
We were going nowhere so what am I missing? (so what am I missing?)
Honestly, I?ve never been one for mystery (one for mystery), so I?m brushing my shoulders and blowing you kisses (and blowing you kisses)

Over and over again got people asking if I?m on the edge
but the truth is I feel like I?m born again, yeahhhh.
But I?m alright (but I?m alright)
never better (never better)
if you could see me now.
Yeah I?m okay (Yeah I?m okay)
never better (never better)
I?ve blown away the clouds.
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh
SO much better than I?ve been before
I won?t miss your kiss no more
SO much better than I?ve been before
I won?t miss your kiss no more
You can see me now, you can see me now
I?m never better, never better
