

Hey Superstar

Men Without Hats

Your such a beautiful gift from above,
When I fell so hard in love and you always said
Because your taste of fame filled you up
Then I became just hard to know
Cause I'm the idiot
Hey Superstar,
So popular,
When you gonna learn nobody cares who you are
Hey Superstar,
Don't try so hard
Maybe someday you'll see who you really are
I'm such a hideous, ridiculous,
But understand all your misfit and I'm okay with it
But you got swept up inside our new media whole world
And I'm so over it

Hey Superstar,
So popular,
When you gonna learn nobody cares who you are
Hey Superstar,
Don't try so hard
Maybe someday you'll see who you really are
I'll never be rich and I'll never look perfect,
I don't care it's who I am
You'll never be happy, chasing all the wrong things
And you'll never understand
Hey Superstar,
So popular,
When you gonna learn nobody cares who you are
Hey Superstar,
Don't try so hard
Maybe someday you'll see who you really are
