but i promise i've change and i put that on everythingDon't wanna go clubbin' with my boys.. don't wanna meet nobody new cuz baby girl im still on love with you said im half a man hear me out girl understandGirl i cheated i shouldn't of beat it left you with no heart beat now n now i can't sleep a and there's no reason i have none at all a cheater stone cold cheater and im not finished don't think im crazy oh girl said she once lay pregnant with my baby with no reason i have none at all a cheater a stone cold cheater..Now i know my actions was wrong but please listen how i feel about it inside girl i just cry n cry over and over you played your position stayed down like a soldier but while you was home alone there's no reason i have none at all

a cheater stone cold cheater
a cheater a stone cold cheaterGirl never ever ever meant to tear us apart wish we could start all over again didn't mean to play with your heart im so sorry baby im so sorry baby and girl i never ever ever meant to lie to you no words can express the type of pain that i put you through im so wrong so wrong im so torn now that your gone.. woooohGirl i cheated i shouldn't of beat it
now n now i can't sleep girl

a cheater stone cold cheat and im not finished don't think im crazy oh girl said she once lay pregnant with my baby with no reason i have none at all a cheater a stone cold cheater..
