Lights Out

Letter Kills

What is it that we could say that would change your outlook on being brave?
I never thought that you would be like this You'd rather take a chance on a chance to missAlife that speaks of a never-ending truth
And the words we say will remain in you
As long as we can sing we'll sing for youDon't wait for tomorrow, raise your voice tonight!
This hate is burning so let's watch it die
And when it falls,
our voice will ring so loud
Don't wait for tomorrow, raise your voice tonightIt's you that makes the choice to stay
'cause when it comes it's gonna come just like a...
And you'll be far from me to decide
You never said you would,
I know, but I'm begging you this time pleaseDon't wait for tomorrow, raise your voice tonight!
This hate is burning so let's watch it die.
And when it falls
our voice will ring so loud
Don't wait for tomorrow, raise your voice tonight...Lights out!
I hope you're ready for this...
