

Don't Look Back

Ã-lga

Don't look back, I won't be waiting for you
Don't look back, this time I'm going through

Too many times
We know it ain't right
I keep waking away
But you still wanna fight
Tell me now that you can see it too
Say the words, baby it's time to

Don't look back, I won't be waiting for you
Don't look back, this time I'm going through

Can't say I'm good
There is no easy way
Got nothing to prove
I just wanna lay in bed today
It's far too sad to even cry about
Oh Lord, I need your help now

Don't look back, I won't be waiting for you
Don't look back, this time I'm going through

I wish you well I really mean it
I hope you find the love you're needing

Now, don't look back!
