The Writing On the Wall

Five Star

No no no no no no, oh, oooh
YeahSome say that I should have known
Some say, girlfriend he didn't care
I guess I should have seen the warning sign
Instead of put my heart on the line
No, I can't deny
Been warned a thousand times
I should have known your kind
But how could I be so blind?Beware of a broken heart, baby
I guess I should have read
The writing on the wall
It said, girlfriend he'll tear your heart apart
I guess I should have read
The writing on the wallSomething told me not to get involved
Stop before this man goes too far
'Cuz he knows how quickly you can fall
When you put your trust in your heart
Oh, I should have played it cool
Played it by the rules
You played me for a fool
How could you be so cruel?(Beware) beware
(of a broken heart, baby) yeah
I guess I should have read
The writing on the wall
It said, girlfriend he'll tear your heart apart
I guess I should have read
The writing on the wallA broken heat can mend
But a fool never learns
And they always pretend to learn
Why can't I pretend
That I don't hurt inside
'Cause now I realizeOh oh oh, ooh
Why'd you have to hurt me?
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, baby ooh
Why'd you go and treat me this way?(Beware) beware
(Of a broken heat, baby) of a broken heart
I guess I should have read
The writing on the wall
It said, girlfriend he'll tear your heart apart

I guess I should have read
The writing on the wall(Beware) beware, baby
(Of a boken heart, baby) ooh
I guess I should have read
(The writing on the wall) writing on the wall
Girlfriend he'll tear your heart apart
I guess I should have read
The writing on the wallMmmm
Stop before he goes too far
