Smoking Gun

Daley

Well I put the feeling off for so long
I couldnt bare to see you moving on Cause nobody else can have youYou told me what I gave was not enough
And the dumbing down of love has made you numb
You say that you dont feel anything at allWell now youre gonna feel it in your heart
Like a bullet in your chest
I thought itd be best
To lay us to restAnd now a smoking gun
Is all that stands between us
I tried to make, you understand
Now theres blood, on my hands
Now Im on the run,
And my demons wont release me
I couldnt be, a fool for love
I had to go, and end it all
With a smoking gunNow a kiss it never made you think straight
And a bullet carries so much more weight
And if were gonna be over, youre gonna be over
Ill plead insanity, a jealous mans reprise
Before they come and take me, make pay for all my sinsYeah youre gonna feel me in your heart
Like a bullet in your chest
So I thought itd be best
To lay us to restAnd now a smoking gun
Is all that stands between us
I tried to make, you understand
Now theres blood, on my hands
Now Im on the run,
And my demons wont release me
I couldnt be, a fool for love
I had to go, and end it all
With a smoking gunYoure gonna feel me in your heart
Like a bullet in your chest
So I thought itd be best
To lay us to restAnd now a smoking gun
Is all that stands between us
I tried to make, you understand
Now theres blood, on my hands
Now Im on the run,
And my demons wont release me

I couldnt be, a fool for love
I had to go, and end it all
With a smoking gunIf its gonna be over, then youre gonna be over
If its gonna be over, then youre gonna be over
If its gonna be over, then youre gonna be over
