Monster

Gabe Bondoc

I'm not a monster
I know youre fragile
I know that I've got some explaining to do Wish I could stay and Tell you I love you
Got to keep lying I can't tell you the truthI can't say why
This is the last time
Last time you're ever gona speak to me
One day you'll see where See where this came from Look back and smile and understand where you'd be
I had to leaveI've never felt this Feeling I'm feeling
You understand me in a way that's so real
We shoot the breeze
Oh, we talk about nothing
Nothing should stop me but loving you is not meant to be
I had to leaveI'm not the one, I'm not the one you should love
I'm not the one you should trust
I'm not the one, I'm not hte one you should love oh no...oh noI'm not a monster
I know you're special
I've never felt this way before it's unreal
I wana stay how it kills me to leave you Still I must go regardless of how I feelYou'll be lonely
But sooner or later
You'll meet a girl who'll take you where should be I'll be a distant Thought not worth holding
Please don't you cry you can forget about me
I have to leaveI'm not the one, I'm not the one you should love
I'm not the one you should trust
I'm not the one, I'm not the one you should love oh no no...I'm not the one, I'm not the one you should love
I'm not the one you should trust
I'm not the one, I'm not the one you should love oh no no...I'm not the one...
