Take Me Away

Killswitch Engage

Watching once more
As the world passes me by
Surrounded but still all alone
Am I living a lie?
Empty faces, empty eyes
Are staring right through me
No regrets but I still ask why
Take me away
To a peace I've never known
This is the price I've paid
And it's taking its toll
Can it be too much to ask
For the time it stole?
Empty faces, empty eyes
Are staring right through me

No regrets, but I still ask why
Take me away
To a peace I've never known
Take me away
Where my life can be my own
I only wish that I had stayed
I only wish that I had known
Take me away
To a peace I've never known
Take me away
Then my life can be my own
Where my life can be my own
Take me away
Take me away
