

See No Evil (feat. Dave Doll)

This Way To The Egress

Wonder if ya wanna go around town
Play it up, play it down
Ya gotta prove yourself, gotta be a man
But just understand, ya gotta-
Kill your enemies
Or journey to the dark side of novelty
We will let it be
Cuz we're all kitsch
It's just a niche
And you're a stitch

Whatchya doin' there in that corner?
Well I have to break it to ya
You're a rat in a trap
Everybody's got somethin' to say
You'll never break it through without gnawing
Over all your indiscrepancies
What will you say when you're on deaths door?
Fuck
We'll I've got to assume
It's got nothin' to do with luck

Tendrils slither out your eyes -
See no evil
And your ears fill up with flies -
Hear no evil
And your mouth it tells the lies -
Speak no evil
We wont make it out alive.
Everybody now...

Wonder when you're gonna merry go round
Well it goes up and it goes down
Rollercoaster's broke
Face first in the sand
Never understand ya gotta -
Kill your memories
Even when you're giggling to the point you're in a poverty
We just let it be

Cuz were all kitsch

Its just a niche

And you're a stitch

Tendrils slither out your eyes -

See no evil

And your ears fill up with flies -

Hear no evil

And your mouth it tells the lies -

Speak no evil

We wont make it out alive
