

City Of Delusion

Muse

Stay away from me
Build a fortress and shield your beliefs
Touch the divine
As we fall in line
Can I believe
When I don't trust
All your theories turn to dust
I choose to hide from the All Seeing Eye
Destroy this City of Delusion
Break these walls down
I will avenge
Justify my reasons with your blood

You'll not rest, settle for less
Until you guzzle and squander what's left
You're not divine
Yet you live and let die
Destroy this City of Delusion
Break these walls down
I will fight
And justify my reasons with your blood
Destroy this City of Delusion
Break these walls down
I will avenge
Justify my reasons with your blood
