

Wrong Man

Matt Corby

You know you're talking to the wrong man my friend
I was on the fence wasting time in future tense
And all I came here for was finding love to help me understand my own
It's undefendable
And now you want to tell me you're devoted
All the while you told me you don't know
And now you want to come and sell me what I already own
And now you're trying to teach me what I already know You know you're talking to the wrong man my friend
When they bleed you out I won't blame you now
And all I came here for was finding love to help me understand my lows
Right, wrong or legal And all the greatest hands that I would hold in mine
All the times I had to let them go
And now they want to come and sell you what you already own
And now they're trying to teach you what you already know You know you're talking to the wrong man my friend
I'll still make amends, gaining time in present tense
And all I came here for was finding love to help me understand my home
And redefine it all
