

New Scream

Turnover

Can I stay at home?
I don't wanna go
I dont wanna wake up til the sun is hanging low Stay up through the night
Sleep away the light
Just another dream I've had that's better than my life Adolescent Dreams
Gave to adult screams
Paranoid that I won't have all the things they say I need What if I don't want
A pattern all night long
All I know is something's wrong because every day I'm craving that new scream
Lusting for more than just old dreams
