You (feat. Nelson Clark)

SIROJ

Don't cha know that, Don't cha know that,
Don't cha know that, Don't cha know that.
You should know that, You should know that,
You should know that.
Don't cha know that time goes by slowly.
You should know that time goes by when your gone.
You should know that time goes by slowly, You should know that time goes by when your gone.
Please help me understand why I'm feeling so different when your around.
I can't be left alone, no when your gone I feel like I'm wasting my time.
This time, why don't you stay? I won't be in your way. There's one thing I can say.
This time, why don't you stay? I won't be in your way. There's one thing I can say.
How I feel when your gone
