

Intolerance

Throwdown

I scraped you and that ignorance from underneath my heel
I treaded on the ashes of your faith
I clean your blood and vanity from sharpened steel
I cut a path through you and walked away
And walked away Devastation
The blessed end of you
Smash your arrogance with lyre
Burn before the fire of my intolerance
Burn in the fire of my intolerance
The fire of my intolerance
All your depravity burns unrelenting in my hate
This is how I abide your kind and your degeneration
With devastation
The blessed end of you
Smash your arrogance with lyre
Burn before the fire of my intolerance
Smash your arrogance with lyre
Burn before the fire of my intolerance Burn in the fire of my intolerance
My intolerance
