

Is This Heaven?

Moody Blues

Walking home with you last night, you said the world is beautiful
And how things look that way when you're in love
I love this world
When I'm in your arms, is this heaven? I opened up the letter that the postman gave to me this morning
Had to stop myself from shouting out, "I love this world"
When I'm in your arms, is this heaven?
When I'm in your arms, is this heaven? I know that heaven waits
For those whose love is true
I want to be there when
The age of love is come again Tell me all about yourself and how you came to me like in a dream
And every night I dream of you, I dream of you
When I'm in your arms, is this heaven?
When I'm in your arms, is this heaven? When I'm in your arms, is this heaven?
When I'm in your arms, is this heaven? I know that heaven waits
For those whose love is true
Don't ask me where or when
The time for us will come again I sit and watch the sun go down and in the darkness there's no sound
While in the sky tonight the stars all cry, 'I love you'
Are they crying out over you
'Cause you're in my heart, is this heaven?
'Cause the story starts and ends with you
