I Count the Tears

The Drifters

Na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
Na, na, na, na, na, na, late at nightI have counted everyday since you've been away
It seemed like a thousand yearsAnd at na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
Na, na, na, na, na, na late at night
I'll sit and count the tearsI have counted all your lies all your alibis
I'm a guy believes just what he hearsAnd at na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
Na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
I'll sit and count the tearsShe's gone and found somebody new
He may be happy now but soon
He'll be counting everyday that she's been away
It'll seem like a thousand yearsAnd at na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
Na, na, na, na, na, na, late at night
He'll sit and count his tears
He'll sit and count his tears
He'll sit and count his tears
He'll sit
