

Endless Summer

Zwan

Hey
Hey
There used to be a time
That I believed
The soft pouring rain
Was just the pouring rain, it wasn't me
But every new light
'Cause we're shiny and bright
We'll suspend the storms
And the clouds in sight
Of an endless summer
An endless summer
An endless summer to be home
Let me go wasting time
Let me go waste my time
Once there was a chance
That I believed you
A kiss was just a kiss
No matter how I missed you
Shine a light on me
Say a prayer for relief
From an endless summer
An endless summer
An endless summer to be home
Did we go on too long?
Did we listen too close?
To a youth built strong
With things children shouldn't know
Hey
And the fallout
From your third degrees
Of broken chairs
And of pedigree
Where the sons kill sons
And the daughters stay wise
'Cause when we rule
Everybody dies
In an endless summer
An endless summer

An endless summer to be home

Hey

Let me go wasting time

Let me go waste my time

Let me go wasting time

Let me go waste my time

Now you can disagree

With how I choose to live

But freedom isn't free

Unless you learn how to give

How to

To the summer, summer, summer, yea

Summer, summer, summer, yea

To the summer, summer, summer, yea
