

Before It Explodes (feat. Bruno Mars)

Alexandra Burke

Ohhh

Ohhh Is not a question of love
'Cause our love has never changed
But all the little things keep piling up
And life keeps getting in the way Don't make it harder than it is
We both knew it'd come to this
Better now than in a year
More night of tears and we both hate each other
The fuse is already lit, so how about a final kiss
Just let it go... And stop the madness before it explodes
Before it's out of our control
Let's stop the madness before it explodes
We gotta let it go
Before it all explodes Somethings we won't understand
And we're both so tired of being misunderstood
So let's just turn around and walk away
And hold on to what was good Don't make it harder than it is
We both knew it'd come to this
Better now than in a year
More nights of tears and we both hate each other
The fuse is already lit, so how about a final kiss
Just let it go... And stop the madness before it explodes
Before it's out of our control
Let's stop the madness before it explodes
We gotta let it go
Before it all explodes There ain't nothing that can save us
But you're close to the edge
And what's the use of going on
If we're lying to each other
Every word that is said
It's too late for us now
Cause we can never count down
It's getting close
It's gonna blow Stop the madness before it explodes
Before it's out of our control
Let's stop the madness before it explodes
We gotta let it go
Before it all explodes Gotta stop the madness ohhh Five, four, three two, one...
