

Keeping On

James Kennedy

They say the Devil makes work for idle hands
And I've seen it
And fear scares the life out of the best laid plans
Don't we know it But failure ain't failing
It's depriving yourself of the life you get from trying
This is a call to distraction Maybe one day we will get there
Maybe we won't and we won't care
Maybe the road leads to nowhere
But a lifetime's guaranteed
The destination you only need
To keep you keeping on Hero's walk among us and we don't know everyday
'Cos the world ain't running on cameo's, no way And a game needs more than just winners
You learn better lessons from good losers
We are the sky between the stars Maybe one day we will get there
Maybe we won't and we won't care
Maybe the road leads to nowhere
But a lifetime's guaranteed
The destination you only need
To keep you keeping on x2
