Flying to the Moon

Emjay

Everyday I see the world
Seems to me it's the same old thing
Same old beat with the same old song
It's time to move to another place
Take me up to the sky
I need a new beat, take me up off from my feet
Take me high to the sky
Where the stars and the moon still shine
Flying to the moon
Getting higher
I can see the stars now
Gotta get you soon
I'm on fire
I've got to show you how now
Flying to the moon
You're beneath me
Maybe you can reach me
Come beyond the sky
You can join me
We can live and fly so high
Everyone in life needs a change
Need something they can't explain
Never mind the reason why
Free your soul up to the sky
Take me high, make me fly
Forget all the troubles that I've seen
Take me up, you know why
To this whole new world that's me
Everyday I see the world
Seems to me it's the same old thing
Everyone in life needs a change
Need something they can't explain
