My Favorite Changes

Stephen Stills

This is my favorite set of changes, already good For a couple of songs Thought I might play them one more time And over againMakes me go back to the trouble I got into Tryin' to live up to What they said "I lucked into at twenty-five" And this part reminds me of my lady She loves me, she's waitin' at home And the baby she's makin' I tell you it's frightenin' How she trusts me so And all of the sad times the bitter taste Left by the struggle to grow Must my baby know the bluesSo if you're still listenin' I hope you'll remember The kid with the big white guitar And all the sad stories to tell
