

Cynical Fuck

Extreme

today don't look so bad compared to tomorrow if time is all we have then we're living on borrowed yesterday's for fools who try to remember the good ol' days weren't always that much better
cynical fuck
well i ain't nothing but a
cynical fuck
it don't take much to be a cynical, all you need is love all you need is what to be a and whatever you do someone's done it first though it's sad but true this us just another verse if you can't take it with you then what's the use
i never saw a u-haul being pulled behind a hearse chorus looks like my brighter side has gotten a bit darker i must have stepped over my four leaf clover
'cause someone drank my half-filled cup of water
