Believer

Giants At Large

I've got this sinking feeling
Despite how empty I feel inside
And although my world has ended
I'll somehow make it out alive
Oh I cant believe this is happening
But it was clear as day to see this coming
I watched it go on and on but never thought a thing
All the weight in the world couldn't keep me downYou can't stop a believer
Cause even when the worst of the worst has come for us
We won't go down tonight
Not without a fightI've got this hopeful feeling
Despite how useless I feel inside
And although this has all ended
It's always on mind
So as you like to my face try your best not to stutter
I'm not burning a bridge I'm just building another
We're moving on, yeah we're moving onCause giving ups not moving on
