Heart To Stone

Dokken

I can't see your face anymore through our broken past I can't feel your pain anymore I am free at lastthis love is lost like a distant sun in an endless sea I tried to spread my wings and fly nothing's left of meI can't feel this love anymore you turned a heart to stone I can't feel this pain anymore you turned a heart to stoneI can't feel your touch anymore though you're next to me can't taste the tears anymore fit of miseryour day is lost like a setting sun that's all right by me I gave my soul and you won't give it back what do you want from meI can't feel this love anymore
you turned a heart to stone
I can't feel this pain anymore you turned a heart to stoneI just can't believe that I'm feeling this way I finally see this love just can't be saved(solo)I can't feel this love anymore
you turned a heart to stone
I can't feel this pain anymore
you turned a heart to stone I can't feel this love anymore
you turned a heart to stone
I can't feel this pain anymore you turned a heart to stoneyou turn (you turn) the heart to stone (the heart to stone) you turn (you turn) the heart to stone
you turn a heart... you turn the heart to stone
