Say Yeah

Niykee Heaton

dark skies and it's dang cold pretty eyes and a rain coat so high can't even remember my name buy we got that fireand i know why we ain't gonna die tonight we see that gold
we got that summer daze, yeah ready say go...you got that fuck it, say yeah tonight, we'll do all the things we wanna do like, just go, you gotta fuck it say yeah packed whip on a full tank all sip from the same drinknowhere to go, nowhere to stay under this sky after tonight we'll wonder why we're not the same
we see that gold
we got that summer daze, yeahready set go... we gotta fuck it say yeah
tonight we'll do all the things we wanna do like, just go, we gotta fuck it, say yeahfuck it if it feels right hold me till it's over all we got is 1 time we ain't going home (X4)tonight, tonight, we'll do all the things we wanna tonight
just go, you gotta fuck it, say yeah tonight, tonight, we'll do all the things we wanna tonght just go you gotta fuck it, say yeah
