Toro y Moi

She knows, I'mma be her boy forever
And she knows, I'm gonna have it all or better
I can't be going up to this girl, no
When I look at her she's all I wanted
She's got my back and I know it
She only does it because she loves itShe knows, I work hard
Says she's got stress it too
I can't pick a fight with you
I recognize you're on my sideI know why she's stuck in, cries
Call me daily just to say you hate it
What's the point of calling
When all I get is nothingShe goes, through it all
If she wasn't by herself
I'm the one who needs her help
But we can go buy your Denny's?She's out while I'm busy playing
But that she doesn't really call it playing
So why do I still go?
If it's not for longShe knows, I'mma be her boy forever
And she knows, I'm gonna have it all or better
I can't be going up to this girl, no
When I look at her she's all I wanted
She's got my back and I know it
She only does it because she loves itWhen you, talk about, how your room shakes at night
I wonder if you spend that time
Taking photos with a friend of mine
We don't gotta fake these smiles
I don't wanna waste your time
(I don't wanna, I don't wanna
I don't wanna waste your time)She knows, I'mma be her boy forever
And she knows, I'm gonna have it all or better
I can't be going up to this girl, no
When I look at her she's all I wanted
She's got my back and I know it
She only does it because she loves itShe knows, I'mma be her boy forever
And she knows, I'm gonna have it all or better
I can't be going up to this girl, no
When I look at her she's all I wanted
She's got my back and I know it
She only does it because she loves it
