My Anthem

Christina Grimmie

Hope you guys like it. Woah, woah, woah.Here is my new song, and it didn't take long.
It's not a cover.
I hope you won't bother.It's not karaoke,
I'm keeping it low-key.
I'm no physic,
but I hope that you like it.Here it goes, now don't make me nervous.
All I've got is a few random verses.
I hope it gets you under the surface.
I'm tryin' my best cause you really deserve it.Oooo, I wanna live for the moments.
That are gone before we're thinkin' about them.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' without them,
and this is my anthem, yeah.Oooo, I wanna live for the feelings.
That can live in this life for meaning.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' with them,
and this is my anthem, yeah.Maybe it's tacky,
this song makes me happy.
If you sing it with me,
possibly maybe.If you think its cheesy,
you're singin' off key,
it won't matter to me,
'cause I'm feeling sunny.Here it goes, now
don't ya get nervous.
All we've got is a few random verses.
I know it'll get you under the surface.
You can't go wrong 'cause nobody's perfect.Oooo, I wanna live for the moments.
That are gone before we're thinkin' about them.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' without them.
And this is my anthem, yeah.Oooo, I wanna live for the feelings.
That can live in this life for meaning.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' with them,
and this is my anthem, yeah.Here it goes, now
don't ya get nervous.
All we've got is a few random verses.
I know it'll get you under the surface.
You can't go wrong 'cause nobody's perfect.Oooo, I wanna live for the moments.
That are gone before we're thinkin' about them.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' without them,

and this is my anthem, yeah.Oooo, I wanna live for the feelings.
That can live in this life for meaning.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' with them,
and this is my anthem, yeah.Oooo, I wanna live for the moments.
That are gone before we're thinkin' about them.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' without them,
and this is my anthem, yeah.Oooo, I wanna live for the feelings.
That can live in this life for meaning.
I'm singin' this cause we'd be nothin' with them,
and this is my anthem, yeah.
