Gimme Love

Bad Weather California

Gimme love
Gimme baby gimme gimme love
Gimme love
Gimme gimme love
Baby gimme your loveI love you boy
I remember when i saw you
I never thought that you could care about me
Then we had a conversation
Boy we couldn't imagine how we would beGimme love...Oh honey
Gimme your love
I need you baby
Gimme your love
I need your lovingI don't know why
When i spend my time without you
Everything in this world means nothing to me cause you give me something baby
Boy this is more than i need to be realGimme love...Gimme your love
Na na na na na
