

One Good Thing (P by Stargate) (FULL)

Babyface

Some people wait for a life time
Waiting for dreams to come true
But sometimes all our dreams just dont happen
And that makes you feel like
Like nothing can work out right for youBut then again, I got you in my life
Im good with that coz nothing can come between us
At least I got one thing right
And thats a fact coz there aint no there to see
It reminded me of something to hold on to
While I dont need something coz I got you
Thats how we get rightChorus
All you need is one good thing that makes you happy
One good thing that lifts your heart
One good thing that makes the difference
Thats more than enough if it makes you happySometimes you get just what you wish for Whatever you want, whatever you say
But somehow you still feel like something's missing
Lord knows I looked everywhere else
Now I look inside myself
Repeat Chorus
