Chris Rupp - Shine Lyrics

Artist: Chris Rupp

Album: Shine

Whoa whoa

In a sea of rising noise lost, searching for my voice a thousand words i've heard today but all mine are lonely castaways

shadows fall over me
who am I meant to be I don't know cuz I can hardly see so step outside, make this moment mine break in to the light, and i'll shine

I gave away younger dreams now there's nothing to redeem I wont let go of what I have today dawn has come, i'm not afraid

who am I meant to be
I don't know cuz i can hardly see
so step outside, make this moment mine

who am I meant to be
I don't know cuz I can hardly see
so step outside, make this moment mine
break in to the light, and i'll shine

Whoa Whoa Whoa
