

American Reject

The Real Chaos

once fooled by thinking were all equal living with lie a plot to occupy my time dispite the fact that your decieteful i never turned away never put fingers in your face

NO AMERICAN REJECT

does anybody feel the same
does anybody feel this way nobody feels the same
nobody feels the way i do i see straight through your disguise he lives in your eyes to think i never questioned why in your best interest leave your distance to see another day and put fingers in my face

replacing you was easy all the shit you put me through all the lies traced back to you and erasing you completely

i dont need you anymore nothing says whats before
