Granite Wall

Bolt Thrower

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Those that fell today shall be
In solemn sculpture cast
Always held in reverence
In memory of the pastNamed in tribute forevermore
The colours carved on the granite wallFolded flags awarded
In the line of duty fallen
Draped upon the coffin lid
The banner never taken
The regimental crest
That still flies high
No colours lost, the epitaph
Attempt to take them and you shall dieNamed in tribute forevermore
The colours carved on the granite wallCarved upon the granite wallMankind on the brink of extinction
Few now left alive - the human race deniedMourning
The tragic loss
Life cut short
This broken column
Immortal
Names shall be
Carved in stone
Upon the granite wall
